

Interactive Science Notebook Rubric

Evaluation Date: _____

Expectations:

- The student's name and class period is written on front cover.
- The first page of the notebook is the title page and includes the student's name, class, and unit information.
- The Table of Contents is set up in the appropriate manner and is up to date.
- All pages are numbered.

Criteria	4	3	2	1
Neatness	Penmanship is very neat and readable. Notebook shows attention to detail. No pages are torn.	Penmanship is mostly neat and readable. No pages are torn	Penmanship is messy and at times unreadable. Few pages are torn.	Penmanship is illegible. Many pages are torn.	X 1
Visual Appeal	All pages use color and graphic techniques effectively to enhance the content learned.	All pages use color and graphic techniques effectively.	Most pages use color and graphic techniques. In a few areas the color and/or graphic techniques confuse the content	Uses minimal color and graphic techniques.	X 1
Input	Notebook contents are complete, dated, and labeled. Notes are accurate and go beyond basic requirements.	Notebook contents are at least 90% complete. All entries are dated, and labeled. Notes are accurate.	Notebook contents are less than 90% complete. Most entries are dated, and labeled. Most of the notes are accurate.	Notebook contents are incomplete. There are many missing dates and labels. There are many inaccuracies in the notes.	X 2
Output	Processing shows a strong understanding of the subject matter. Shows impressive, in-depth self-reflection.	Processing shows understanding of the subject matter. Shows in-depth self-reflection.	Processing shows a very basic understanding of the subject matter. Shows some self-reflection.	Processing shows very little understanding of the subject matter. Shows little real self-reflection.	X 2
				TOTAL SCORE	